EASTERN WORLD

is a monthly magazine devoted to Pakistan, India, S.E. Asia, the Far East and the Pacific. It keeps its readers abreast with the political, social and economic developments in that area and aims at fostering a greater understanding between the peoples of East and West.

As a non-party, impartial forum for free discussion, its articles, contributed by prominent spokesmen of both East and West, contain vital information on Asian affairs and mirror the leading opinions on all issues concerning that part of the world. Important controversial matters are ventilated in an independent manner and offer an invaluable source of information on that most important centre of world affairs. Trading possibilities with the East, cultural developments and books on Asian topics are under constant review.

EASTERN WORLD is well illustrated and belongs to those few international publications which are essential to everyone who wishes to follow world events. Certain issues during the year are devoted to the development of individual nations, and deal with all aspects of life in these countries.

A SELECTION OF PRESS OPINIONS

MANCHESTER GUARDIAN. "... precisely filling the task ... with the object of stimulating interest in Far Eastern affairs and contributing to mutual understanding between Europe and the East. ..." THE HINDU, Madras. "... well written and edited and strikes a middle course between serious scholarship and topicality. ..." TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT. "... No student of Eastern affairs can afford to miss this review. ..." INDIAN MAIL, Singapore. "... the contributors include some of the foremost authorities on Asia and the Pacific whose articles on politics, economics, culture and science make the publication a very valuable and thought-provoking one. It offers a wealth of information to students of international affairs. ..." OBSERVER, London. "... there should be a welcome for a journal supplying so much solid information and illuminating comment. ..."
